COLLOQUIA HUMANISTICA 9

CALL FOR PAPERS

The aim of COLLOQUIA HUMANISTICA, the interdisciplinary journal of humanities published annually by the Institute of Slavic Studies of the Polish Academy of Sciences, is to introduce a variety of perspectives in discussing contemporary issues with emphasis on culture and history questions. We propose a space that would allow an intensive intellectual debate and a lively exchange of thoughts between researchers.

The journal is indexed on: DOAJ, SCOPUS, CEEOL, CEJSH, Emerging Sources Citation Index, ERIH PLUS, Worldcat.

COLLOQUIA HUMANISTICA kindly invites submissions of manuscripts that addresses the topic:

Sephardim, Ashkenazim and Non-Jewish Peoples. Encounters Across Europe

The upcoming volume shall present a wide spectrum of Jewish and non-Jewish cultural contacts: encounters, clashes and exchanges in various contexts (literature, art, education, social life, languages etc.). The topic has already been covered within Jewish-related studies, however, there is still a need for a compilation which would help reveal patterns or/and diversity of those contacts across the entire Europe.

Via the case studies of the encounters – from the Balkans to North Jutland, in multicultural and homogenous surroundings – we want to show miscellaneous experiences among both Sephardic and Ashkenazi groups, traditional, isolated Jewish groups and acculturated ones, Haskala and post-Haskala communities, as well as those emancipated by Alliance Israélite Universelle.

Also, we hope to depict various attitudes on both, Jewish and non-Jewish, sides: acculturation, integration, separation, alienation, loyalty, nationalisms, Diaspora nationalism and many more. Hopefully, this approach will allow us to discover the ideologies hidden behind particular events.

We intend to focus on comparative research on encounters within both, Sephardic and Ashkenazi, Diasporas during the 19th century up to the first half of the 20th century, but we are open to proposals of articles and materials beyond these brackets.

If you wish to contribute to the ninth volume of the COLLOQUIA HUMANISTICA, please send a title by the 25 March 2019 to the editors of the volume, Aleksandra Twardowska and Jolanta Sujecka: atwardowska@umk.pl, jolanta.sujecka@ibi.uw.edu.pl.

In case of accepted proposals, full papers, not published before, should be submitted by the 30 October 2019.
COLLOQUIA HUMANISTICA STYLE SHEET

All contributors of papers for COLLOQUIA HUMANISTICA are urged to look at this information to ensure that they adopt the correct format:

The Oxford Referencing System (documentary-note style) is requested. As in example:

Orbini and Pribojević are obviously thinking ethnically. First of them wrote: “antique unity of a language was a proof of the nation’s unity” (Orbini 1999: 233); “Members of one nation are those, who have taken the same language with their mother’s milk” – said the second author (Pribojević 1997: 141). Therefore commonwealth of a language becomes fundamental tool of categorization in these narrations.

1. When quoting titles of periodicals, please use their original language. When quoting titles of literary works, please use their original language in brackets (only on first mention) and the English translation in the body of your text.

2. When using quotations originally in other languages than English, please use the language of the original in the body of your text and provide an English translation of the quotation in a footnote below the text.
